VOL. V. NO. 237. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, OCTOBER 1-2, 1899. PRICE, 5 CENTS

HARLEM FAVORITES FAIL.

Harlem's fifth fortnightly meeting closed Saturday with a hurrah. It was the only afternoon in two weeks that gave anything like pleasant weather. Then, too, Secretary Nathanson offered an attractive card and the crowd turned out in holiday style. The track, while being far from good, had dried out a lot and the path had nearly been wiped out by the track harrows. This made the contests more equal, and everything considered the afternoon's sport was good.

Favorites fared badly, and the twenty-three books in the ring worked at a profit. Only one betting choice, Tappan, won, and that was in the last race, the fore Tappan came too late to do the betting public much good.

Plantain's easy victory over Benneville, King Bermuda and Hugh Penny in the third race was one of the features and demonstrated how uncertain horse racing is. Plantain was the outsider of the quartette that started and he was not considered to have a chance to win. "Virginia" Bradley, however, thought well of the gelding and told his cronies and also J. H. Smith, who owns Benneville, to bet on him. Smith gave Bradley the laugh and politely informed him that Plantain would never be within striking distance of Benneville. Hugh Penny jumped out in the lead shortly after the start and set a rattling pace to the stretch turn. Here there was a general closing up and when straightened away for home Benneville was first to show. He did not remain in front any length of time, however, for Plantain came up on the inside with a rush and at the eighth post he had Benneville beaten. From there home Dugan took matters easy and, at the wire Plantain was a length and a half to the good.

Much interest was centered in the mile and a quarter event, but it proved to be very tame. Rollins got away flying and opening up a big gap early made a runaway of it. Annowan finished second and Yuba Dam third. Ten horses started and they were badly strung out all the way.

She won the six furlong handicap rather handily. She was heavily played at liberal odds and coming away on call in the stretch beat Moroni and Jim Gore II like a good racehorse. In this race Sam W. performed marvelously. Friday Sam W. ran a crackling good race in the mud and this may have taken the edge off him.

In the five and a half furlongs two-year-old race, two horses, Frangible and Highland Lad fell. The accident occurred just after the horses had passed the half mile post and the fall was a mean-looking one, but it did not cause any damage to horses or riders. Silver Fizz was an odds on favorite for the race, but she got into a tangle at the start and never really got straightened out. The winner turned up in Maud Wallace, who was a 20 to 1 chance.

The opening mile and seventy yards race fell to The Bondman. He was at 4 to 1 and easily beat Pay the Fiddler, who was practically left at the post.

Tappan saved the talent from being shut out entirely in the last race, but he had to be much the best to deliver the goods. Mitchell had the mount and he managed to get shut off at every turn. Tappan stood all this gamely, however, and eventually won running away.

Wood Hoffman left for Latonia Saturday with his entire string. This includes Molo and Sam Fuden.

Siddartha, the noted stallion, died last Tuesday at Dr. W. A. McAlester's farm near Columbia, Mo. Siddartha was 19 years old and his get are winning daily throughout the country. Clem Creveling will sell a large consignment of yearlings in the paddock at Hawthorne, Tuesday. They are the property of J. B. Malone of Gallatin, Tenn.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Mr. W. F. Schulte, President of the American Turf Congress, and Capt. James H. Rees left for San Francisco last night for the purpose of endeavoring to harmonize the now conflicting purposes of the turf organizations of that city. Their mission is an important one and for the general good of the turf it is to be hoped it is to be crowned with success. During the absence of Capt. Rees, Harry Kuhl will preside in the judges' stand at Hawthorne.

A dispatch from San Francisco says that Mr. W. O. McDonough has sold his world-famous stallion Ormonde to J. B. Haggin together with the stallion St. Carlo, the colts Orsini and Osary, by Ormonde, and the following broodmares: Moonlight, dam of Ajax, Santa Bella, Miss Brummel, Sloe (by Hanover), China Rose, Santa Cruz, Bessie W. (by D. Robin), Lady Marion, Countess Largo, Anarchy, Gubberville, Flurry, Sapientia, (by Wisdom), Marilee, Or Liana, (by Ormonde), Wind Flower, Kissing Crust, Glenlivet and Moonlit.

Secretary Ed C. Hopper, of Latonia, writes to DAILY RACING FORM:

"I think Latonia will have a good fall meeting. Everything is in readiness and the place never looked so good. It is at its best now. There are 400 horses on the grounds and more applications for stalls than we can fill. There has been no racing here since last June and the public is anxious for it. We have eight stakes which filled nicely to be run during the nineteen days.

"The ring will be open to all reputable bookmakers—no more syndicates for Latonia.

"E. C. HOPPER, Sec'y."

Tuesday's Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"It is more than likely that there will be an open betting ring at the fall meeting at Newport.

"Frank Fowler, the manager of the Queen City track, is home after spending the summer on the Canadian race circuit.

"Mr. Fowler was interviewed yesterday and stated that it was his intention to run an open ring at Newport if possible.

"I am in favor of throwing the ring open to all comers," said Mr. Fowler, "and give all reputable bookmakers a chance to draw in. If we can see our way clear we will not go back to syndicate betting."

"Manager Fowler was a very busy man yesterday. He had a long talk with Superintendent Lyman Davis, of the Newport track, who reported everything in tip-top shape for the coming season. There are more than twenty-five stables at the track at the present time, and nearly all the big stables that race on the Canadian circuit will take in the Newport meet.

"Only horses in training and fit to race will be given stable room, as the track will be crowded with first-class stables that will race there before going to New Orleans. Upon opening his mail yesterday morning Mr. Fowler found numerous applications for stable room from well-known turfmen who desire to try the game at Newport. Every indication points to a successful meeting, and the original date schedule will be carried out as announced some weeks ago."

THE LATONIA MEETING.

The Latonia fall meeting begins next Saturday. Advance indications presage interesting racing and a successful meeting in general. It is now quite a space of time since Cincinnati race-goers have had an opportunity to view their favorite diversion and they are no doubt eager to enjoy the good things prepared for them by Secretary Hopper. Quite a number of good horses now at the New York tracks are expected, Batten, Rush, Spirituelle, Star of Bethlehem, Lieutenant Gibson and His Excellency among them. As at the spring meeting Messrs. L. P. Tarlton and Charles F. Price will alternate as presiding judges with Secretary
Hopper to help out as third judge. Morgan
Chinn is to do the starting. The meeting will end Saturday, October 28. The stakes and days of their decision are as follows:

Saturday, October 7—The Tobacco Stakes,
3-year-olds and upward, $700 added; 1 mile.
Tuesday, October 10—The Zoo Stakes,
2-year-old fillies, $700 added; 3/4 mile.
Saturday, October 14—The Autumn Prize,
3-year-olds, $1,000 added; 1 1/16 miles.
Thursday, October 19—The Kimball Stakes,
2-year-old colts, $700 added; 3/4 mile.

Saturday, October 21—The Cincinnati Hotel
Autumn Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward,
$1,000 added; 1 1/8 miles.

Tuesday, October 24—The Covington Autumn
Stakes, 2-year-olds, $700 added; 5 1/2 furlongs.
Thursday, October 26—The Keaton Stakes,
3-year-olds and upward, $750 added; 3/4 mile.
Saturday, October 28—The Kentucky Central
Stakes, 2-year-olds, $700 added; 1 mile.

P. at 12 minutes. Start fair. Win well in hand; second and third cleverly. The Bondman was lucky, well ridden and ran one of his best races. Wilson rode him well and picked the best going all the way. Pay the Fiddler, perhaps, could have won. He was practically left at the post and ran a cracking good race. Holdup was away flying and over-raced himself. Antiquary found the race too fast for him. At his best he is only a sprinter. Elm was high in flight and not ready. The field was badly strung out all the way.

Winner—Ch. f, by Regalis—Miss Briele.
Post 15 minutes. Start bad. Won driving hard; second and third were doing their best. Erla d'Or was roughly treated down the backstretch and on the far turn. With clear sailing she would have beaten both of those that finished in front of her. Maud Wallace just did last long enough to win. She was lucky. Like Erla d'Or, Ida Ledford had a rough journey. She also got a very wide ride. Domicick was trying to whip the field through the stretch and consequently let her head drop. Gusto had a lot of speed but went to pieces at the end. Throw Silver Fizz's race out. She got away all tangled up and never really got straightened out. Barback had a chance from where he got away. It was an ugly looking fall that Frangible and Highland Lad got, but no damage was done.
Scratches—14669 E. Caney, 97; 14653 Yoloco, 103.

Winner—Ch. g, by Knight of Enderle—B. ana.
Post 15 minutes. Start perfect. Won cleverly next two driving. Plantain was fresh and good and found the going perfectly to his liking. Dugan rode him well. He took the shortest route on the stretch turn, after by saving a lot of ground. At this point there was little or no difference in the going, and the ground saved practically won the race for Plantain. Benneville was rated first, but fell and on the bend for home looked like a winner, but under pressure he weakened badly. King Bermuda made a strong bid on the stretch turn, but he, too, did away when the pinch came. Hugh Penny is a rogue. He showed speed, but when he stopped he stopped all over. The horse is old and cunning, and consequently a bad betting proposition.
Plantain, place, 3 to 2; show, out. Benneville, place, 2 to 5; show, out. King Bermuda, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Hugh Penny, place, 6 to 5; show, out.

Winner—B. m, by Racine—Aurelia II.
Off a first break to a perfect start. Won hand ridden; second and third driving. Sly ran an extraordinary race. She was lucky but also far the best. At the eighth post she held everything else safe, but Flick took no chances and never gave the filly an opportunity to lose. M. roni was the victim of a bad ride. Mitchell messed him about badly. He was a good horse and ran a nice race. Jim Gore II. was bumped and interfered with on the stretch turn but he stood it gamely and finished strong. Violet Parsons was in the very worst going all the way. D. s. r showed a fine turn of speed. The weight anchored Verily. Sim W. had no speed and ran a bad race.
Scratches—14570 Duty, 85; 14510 Antiquary, 95; 14771 Deering, 102; 14789 Janice, 90; 14698 The Clemat, 105.

Post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and staggering. Hollins got a flying start and made a runaway race of it. He was tiring badly at the end. Annowan finished very strongly. This was a good race for him. Evidently the hind race Yuba Dam had last Friday hurt him. He seemed to labor all the way. There was little or no action in this race. The field was badly strung out all the way.
Hollins, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Annowan, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Yuba Dam, show, 3 to 5. M. Edwards, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

P. at 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily after a hard early drive; second and third under full sail. Tappan was much the best and had to be to win under his ride. Mitchell got pocketed several times, let the horse swerve at the head of the stretch and in fact did every thing but fall off. Dolore had abundant speed but the route was too far for her. Integrity, under a bad ride, ran a fine race. Debride was short and wet to pieces when the real racing began. Locust Blossom ran a poor race. So did Eight Bells. Watch the latter.
Scratches—14791 Warren Point, 99; 14787 Cordial, 89; 12659 Oxnard, 99; 14791 Clairassier, 92; 14783 Croesus, 103.
Overweights—Tillie W., 4 pounds.
Tappan, place, even; show, 2 to 5. Dolore, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Integrity, show, 2 to 1. Eight Bells, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10.
